Does comedy improvisation scare you? IT DOESN'T HAVE TO!

Don't think you're funny? BET YOU ARE!!!

Though the classes aren't intended to "make you funny" they will help you tap into your comedic side, get you back to the playfulness that we all need to succeed and it's all done in a fun, supportive environment.

You'll surprise yourself at what you can do!

"I'm really pleased with the way you're teaching us. I've taken classes at Groundlings and I find your class to be of the same high quality, plus you can speak to us with Playhouse West lingo to help clarify new ideas. The hands-on active approach to the class is a real workout, and my confidence with improv has already improved. Plus, it's the three hours of my week where I laugh the most. And that's gotta be good for my health! It is also mandatory for anyone intending to audition commercially."
